

CONTENTS

Preface vii

- 1 Language Development in Hearing Children ♦ 1
 - Aspects of Language 1
 - Theories of Language Acquisition 2
 - Prelinguistic Development 8
 - Semantic Development 12
 - Syntax and Morphology 19
 - Summary and Implications 27

- 2 Language Development in Prelinguistically Deaf Children ♦ 31
 - Interaction Between Adults and Young Children 32
 - Communicative Intention Before Development of Referential Language 35
 - Semantic Development: English Language 36
 - Syntax and Morphology: English Language 40
 - American Sign Language (ASL) Development 50
 - Summary 51

- 3 Historical Overview of Teaching Methods and Materials for Deaf Children ♦ 55
 - Teaching Developments Before the 20th Century 55
 - The 20th Century 65
 - Language Materials and Technology 78
 - Summary 84

- 4 Natural Language Approach: Principles and Practices ♦ 87
 - Assumptions and Principles of Natural Language Teaching 88
 - From Principles to Practices 92
 - Instructional Activities for the Natural Language Approach 104
 - Summary 115

5 Structured and Combined Approaches to Language Learning ◆ 117

- Assumptions and Principles 118
- Instructional Strategies 135
- Figurative Expressions 140
- Inferencing Skills 150
- Summary 156

6 Reading and Writing ◆ 159

- Reading Achievement Levels of Deaf Children 159
- Reading 162
- Writing 175
- Summary 192

7 Assessment of Language Development ◆ 193

- Accountability and Large-Scale Testing 194
- Assessment for Instructional Planning 197
- Summary 207

8 Specialized Language Programs ◆ 209

- Bilingual Education: ASL–English 210
- Multicultural Students and Language Practices 217
- Technology in the Classroom 220
- Summary 224

9 Reflections ◆ 227

Stephen P. Quigley and Peter V. Paul

- Normal Language Development 228
- Communication Intervention Systems 229
- Language Learning–Teaching Approaches 238

Appendix: Internet Resources ◆ 243

References ◆ 253

Author Index ◆ 283

Subject Index ◆ 289

About the Authors ◆ 301

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.