Preface: Seven Dimensions of Time

Maryanne Wolfix
Acknowledgmentsxxi

Section I The Nature and Extent of Time-Related Deficits in Developmental Dyslexia

The Neurobiology of Reading Difficulties John Stein3
Speed and Temporal Processing in Dyslexia Angela J. Fawcett and Roderick I. Nicolson23
Exploration of the Basis for Rapid Naming's Relationship to Reading Patricia Greig Bowers41
The Relationship of Naming Speed to Multiple Reading Measures in Disabled and Normal Readers Franklin R. Manis and Laurie Freedman65
Is the Reading-rate Problem of German Dyslexic Children Caused by Slow Visual Processes? Heinz Wimmer and Heinz Mayringer93
Aberrations in Timing in Children with Impaired Reading: Cause, Effect or Correlate? Deborah P. Waber103

Section II The Hypothesized Sources of Time-Related Deficits: Neuronal, Structural, and Genetic Levels

Animal Models of Developmental Dyslexia: Is There a Link Between Neocortical Malformations and Defects in Fast Auditory Processing? Glenn D. Rosen, R. Holly Fitch, Matthew G. Clark, J. J. Lo Turco, Gordon F. Sherman, and Albert M. Galaburda129
Dyslexia, Learning and the Cerebellum Roderick I. Nicolson and Angela J. Fawcett159
The Cerebellum, Timing, and Language: Implications for the Study of Dyslexia Richard B. Ivry, Timothy C. Justus, and Christina Middleton189
A Structural Basis for Developmental Dyslexia: Evidence From Diffusion Tensor Imaging Russell A. Poldrack213

On the Functional Neuroanatomy of Fluency or Why Walking is Just as Important to Reading as Talking Is Frank Balch Wood, Lynn Flowers, and Elena Grigorenko	235
The Determinants of Reading Fluency: A Comparison of Dyslexic and Average Readers Zvia Breznitz	245
Genetic and Environmental Influences on Reading and RAN: An Overview of Results from the Colorado Twin Study Donald L. Compton, Chayna J. Davis, John C. DeFries, Javier Gayçn, and Richard K. Olson	277
Section Three Implications for Intervention
The Use of Fluency-based Measures in Early Identification and Evaluation of Intervention Efficacy in Schools Edward J. Kame'enui, Deborah C. Simmons, Roland H. Good III, and Beth A. Harn	307
Principles of Fluency Instruction in Reading: Relationships With Established Empirical Outcomes Joseph K. Torgesen, Carol A. Rashotte, and Ann W. Alexander	333
Moving the Bottom: Improving Reading Fluency Betty Ann Levy	357
Coda
Processes Underlying Timing and Fluency of Reading: Efficiency, Automaticity, Coordination, and Morphological Awareness Virginia W. Berninger, Robert D. Abbott, Felix Billingsley, and William Nagy	383
Index	415
