

PART 1

The Family of the Child With an Exceptionality

Chapter 1

Understanding and Responding to the Needs of Parents and Families 3

Chapter 2

Accommodating Cultural, Linguistic, and Family-Structure Diversity. 35

Chapter 3

Basic Skills and Strategies Needed for Successful
Conferencing and Collaboration. 75

Chapter 4

Development of Trust in the Family–Professional
Relationship 97

PART 2

Regularly Occurring and Ongoing Conferencing and Collaboration Activities

Chapter 5

Initial Contact and Information Exchange Conferences:
Forming the Foundation for Successful Collaboration. 119

Chapter 6

Expanding Interventions: Parents as Treatment and Intervention Agents 157

Chapter 7

Progress Monitoring Conferences 191

Chapter 8

Unplanned Conferences. 223

Chapter 9

Resolving Conflicts 241

PART 3

Addressing the Issues and Needs of Families Across the Years

Chapter 10

Parents and Families of Young Children

With Exceptionalities 271

Chapter 11

Parents and Families of Elementary-Age Children

With Exceptionalities 299

Chapter 12

Parents and Families of Youth and Young Adults

With Exceptionalities 339

References. 363

Appendixes

Appendix A: Initial Interview 405

Appendix B: Training Parents and Family Members to Be Treatment and Intervention Agents 419

Appendix C: Conflict Resolution 427

Index 435

About the Authors 453

© copyrighted material by PRO-ED, Inc.